Looking Ahead: Who Will We Be? – Guardare al futuro con speranza, identità in evoluzione, promesse

EPISODE 16 • Notting Hill, One Year Later

SERIES FINALE

1 Yo. Remember me? September last year, I was standing right here saying "what's the vibe?" and lowkey panicking about Year 10.

2 Turns out, the vibe was... everything. Homework panic, market trips, eco-club, exams that nearly cooked me. And proper good days too.

3 I've made friends who've seen me rot in bed and still show up. I've failed stuff and pivoted. I've even saved for Tokyo.

4 So if you're starting this year feeling like I did — lost, unsure, manifesting good grades and hoping for the best...

5 Just know: you're gonna figure it out. One chapter at a time. With people who've got your back. No cap.

6 Welcome to Year 11. Let's see what we become. Cheers to the next next chapter. ♡

★ REMEMBER! The journey in 2 phrases:

★ "Turns out..." / "I've made friends who..." = "Turns out" = unexpected result. Relative clauses for defining experiences. Language of wise reflection.

★ "You're gonna figure it out" / "Cheers to the next chapter" = Future reassurance + metaphor. "Chapter" = life phase. Vocabulary of hope and continuity.
