Homework Panic & Study Plans – Parlare di compiti, stress e piani di studio

EPISODE 2 • School Library + VOL. 1

1 Ugh. This maths assignment is doing my head in. I'm lowkey panicking.

2 Tell me about it. I haven't even started. Proper stressed.

3 What are you gonna do? I'm thinking of hitting the library every afternoon this week.

4 Same. I'm meeting Jake here at 4. We're gonna actually try for once.

5 Look at us, being productive. Who are we? 😂

6 Don't jinx it. Let's just get it done and go grab a boba. Cheers to surviving Week 1.

★ REMEMBER! 2 phrases you NEED:

- ★ "Doing my head in" = Making me crazy/stressed. Way more natural than "This is difficult." Used constantly by UK teens about school.
- ★ "Gonna" + "Thinking of" = Real spoken English for "going to" and future plans. Nobody says "I am going to" in casual conversation.
